FLOOR DEBATE

March 23, 2001 LB 773

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Bromm, even though the three of us may not necessarily sit down together, all three of us, are you willing to work with us on what I've...you've heard me talk about with Senator Kruse?

SENATOR BROMM: Absolutely. I think that would be a good course of action here.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, Senator Bromm, when we were laboring to get the underlying language into the statutes that allows the use of convictions from other states, did we battle longer than we have battled so far on this bill?

SENATOR BROMM: We did.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Did we reach a point where we were going to do what we could to discuss it? And, in fact, you put me in a position where I virtually rewrote things that I didn't like.

SENATOR BROMM: Yeah. That's...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You did trick me into that, didn't you?

SENATOR BROMM: I tricked you, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I wonder if...is this a time when I ought to...(laughter)...is this...is this a time when I ought to get even, or should I adopt the same accommodating attitude I did then and we work to see what we can resolve before we battle, if that becomes necessary.

SENATOR BROMM: I think you should allow yourself to be tricked once again.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Bromm. Mr. President, that's all that I have to offer. Thank you very much.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Wehrbein, on the advancement of LB 773.
